RM-10868 has provided yet more support to improve the license structure of the Amateur radio service.
While I feel the code requirement should be dropped for all license classes. In days gone by-by morse code was a necessary operating skill.   Today it is only one of the various operating modes.   We have not required licenses to be tested on other operating modes.   Drop the code.